FEATURED ON:

Phoebe's distinct four octave contralto can be heard enhancing these already great recordings:

1. Janis Ian – Hymn (from her album "Aftertones", 1976) (Phoebe performs with Janis Ian and Odetta)
2. Joe Cocker – The One (from his album "Unchain My Heart, 1988)
3. Eric Andersen - Ain't No Time To Bleed (from his album "Beat Avenue", 2003)
4. Avenue Blue & Jeff Golub – Spooky (from their album "Naked City", 1996)
5. Killer Joe featuring E Street's Max Weinberg – Club Soul City (from their album "Scene Of The Crime", High Tone, 1991)

CAN'T CONFIRM:

Many discographies cite Phoebe's appearance on the albums listed below. I have not heard them (or have not heard Phoebe's voice on them) so I can't confirm:

1. Various Artists - "The Wizard of Oz in Concert", Rhino/WEA, 1996 - Phoebe Snow, Keith Levenson and John Moller sing "If I Only Had A Heart/A Brain/The Nerve" and the Full Company, including Phoebe, sing the Finale – "Over The Rainbow"
2. The Roches – The Roches, Warner Brothers, 1979 (song unknown to me, but possibly "The Married Men")
3. Stephen Bishop – Red Cab To Manhattan, Warner Brothers, 1980 (Reissued on Wounded Bird Records) (song unknown to me)
4. David Sanborn – Sanborn, Warner Brothers, 1976 (Phoebe reportedly performs on the song "Smile". I have listened to it a few times and I just can't hear her.)
5. Greg Naughton – Demagogue & the Sun Songs, Blue Light, 2002 (Phoebe reportedly performs on the song "The Let Down Lullabye sun song 3". Like 'Smile', I've listened and am not convinced.)
6. Denny Laine – Aah, Laine, Wizard, 1973 (song unknown to me) Wasn't Denny Laine a member of "Wings" with Paul McCartney?
7. Jimmy Salvemini – Roll It, Elektra, 1986 (Phoebe reportedly performs on the song "Whether Or Not The World Gets Better")
8. Bonfiglio – Harmonica America, Sophisticated Acoustic, 2005 (song unknown to me)
9. Paul Shafer and The Party Boys of Rock 'n Roll – The World's Most Dangerous Party, SBK, 1993 (Phoebe reportedly performs on the song "Inner City Blues")
10. Haywood Gregory – The Haywood Gregory Collection, Gregota Music, 2005 (song unknown to me, but possibly 'Club Soul City', originally from the Killer Joe CD "Scene Of The Crime", High Tone, 1991. Haywood Gregory was a musician [and lead singer?] on that recording.)
11. Various Artists - City Folk Live – Celebrating The 10th Anniversary of WFUV's Eclectic Music Mix, WFUV, 1998 - (Phoebe reportedly performs on the song "Never Never Land" - a live, in-studio recording.)

UNCONFIRMED 'B' SIDES"

The two songs below could possibly be "B" Sides that never made it to an album.

1. Don't Sleep With Your Eyes Closed is a "B" Side of "Shaky Ground", Columbia Single, 1976
2. Let The Good Times Roll – possibly a "B" Side of "Harpo's Blues, Shelter Single, 1974

POSSIBLE SINGLES:

Certain on-line music sites have the following Phoebe Snow 7" Vinyl Singles on offer. They're new to me:

1. Cry Of A Broken Heart/Sweet Thing – Shasta Records
2. Arena Movediza/No Duermas Con Los Ojos Cerados – Columbia Records
3. Go 4 It Ballad/Go 4 It Jubilation – WDIV TV, Detroit, 1980 (promotional recording)

BACKGROUND VOCALS:

Phoebe is credited with 'background vocals' on the songs listed below. I am sure there are many others. Again, I haven't heard them, so I can't confirm.

1. Billy Joel – The Stranger – Background Vocals on "Everybody Has A Dream"
2. Laurie Anderson – Mister Heartbreak – Background Vocals on "Gravity's Angel"

WIKIPEDIA:

Wikipedia reports that Phoebe has 'sang' with Jewel, Thelma Houston, Michael Bolton, Queen, Jackson Browne, Boz Scaggs, Cyndi Lauper, Mavis Staples, Roger Daltrey, Chaka Khan, CeCe Penniston and Take 6. I'm not sure at this point if any of those events are on record, although the references to Jewel, Jackson Brown and Roger Daltrey could be from the "The Wizard of Oz in Concert" recording as they perform on that as well.

REALLY OUT THERE:

In my research I've also noted that Phoebe supposedly participated in recordings by The Atlanta Singers and The Choir of the Cathedral of St. Philip, Atlanta. Who knows? The trail ends there on those two.
